Share Relief Aid

Council Will Debate Question of Twenty Per Cent. Contribution by This City at Tonight's Meeting

Recommending that a strong protest be forwarded to the senior governments following their reduction from $55,000 to $52,910 a month in the direct relief grant to Edmonton, commissioners in a report to council Monday stated: "Your commissioners are strongly of the opinion that the system of fixed grants should be abandoned, and that a percentage basis should be substituted, with the city's portion (of relief) limited to a maximum of 20 per cent. . . ."

$80,000 BOND SALE TO COST TOWN $254,000

Commission Told Of Issue Floated By Beverly 1912-16

Debutante sales between 1912 and 1916 made by the town of Beverly amounting to $80,000 and out of which the town received $17,000 net will cost the taxpayers $254,000 before they are retired, P. J. Rowe, M.P., for Alberta, and former secretary-treasurer of the town, told the Royal Commission enquiring into the city's present financial affairs, Monday.

Of these loans $25,000 had to be paid for by the town of Beverly, which was subsequently abandoned and $10,000 for a new system, which after construction was found to be useless, he said.

This would mean a loss to the taxpayers of approximately $80,000 on these two projects when the debentures are finally retired, stated Rowe.

He said that approximately $35,000 had been paid on the $17,000 received from the debentures between 1912-1916, and that there were still $18,000 to be paid on them. Mr. Rowe said this had a considerable effect on Beverly's financial position.

Cancellation of Rush Mines Ltd. last year was done on a town council order, he said, in compensation for the company's granting some of the town's graveling some of the town's graveling some of the town's graveling.

NO COMMISSION
Mr. Rowe said that no commission had been paid for the share sale in Beverly limited prior to April, 1932 and that the town's share in the date commission was paid. This commission, he said, approximated $10,000.

Electors Vote In Russia Elections

STALIN GETS ACCLAIM AS SOVIET CHIEF

First Secret Ballot Of Country's History Held December 12

MOSCOW, Dec. 13.—With bands playing and red banners flying the Soviet masses paraded to the polls yesterday and elected a resolute Soviet with Joseph Stalin, their undisputed leader, an almost choice for one of the seats.

The first secret, direct-election in the history of Russia brought out most of the 90,000,000 qualified electors. Voting for 1,143 members of the two-chamber parliament virtually was a ratification of nominations made a month ago. Few candidates were opposed.

An announcement after the polls closed said the electors in some districts of Moscow and the Soviet Far East voted 100 per cent, except for those too ill to go to the polls.

CLOSE EARLY

In the Moscow district, where Stalin was a candidate, everybody else had cast a ballot by 10 p.m. so the polls were closed two hours early.

Total number of votes was not announced, however.

Reports from Moscow districts showed from 80 to 90 per cent. of the votes had been cast by 10 p.m., although the polls remained open until midnight.

The election gave impetus to rumors three prominent Soviet officials were in political trouble. It did not make serious trouble.

General L. I. Alkhanov, chief of the police, and General G. I. Bork, chief of the tank corps, were replaced on the ballot just before the election. Alkhanov gave way to Ivan Maslennikov, a frontier division officer. Bork was supplanted by Lieut. Daniel Novitsky.

ORDERLY MANNER

As a result of two months' instruction in the method and meaning of the secret ballot, the election went off in an orderly manner. After voting, many remained at the polling places, where they were fitted up almost like restaurants and orchestras. Nourished car for children.

In one district the electors had to vote for but two candidates—one a Soviet and the other the ally of the Soviet of Nationalities, corresponding roughly to the candidates of common sense and smaller, respectively.

Lack of opportunity reduced complications to a minimum. In nearly all districts all there was to vote was folding the two ballots, placing them in an envelope, sealing them and dropping them into the box.

RETURNS SLOW

The total vote probably will be unknown for some days, as returns from about the Arctic circle, the Far East and middle Asia are likely to come in slowly.

The supreme Soviet, expected to convene in January will replace the central executive committee, which has been elected indirectly by show of hands at the congresses of Soviet.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the election, Stalin yesterday urged the electors was the first free democratic election in Soviet history, because the voters would be free from pressure by "bribe" and "have nots."

MRS. E. GOSTICK SURE SHE KNOWS CORRECT ANSWER

CALGARY, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Edith Gostick, M.A., said yesterday the reason why Dr. Peter Campbell, a candidate for the seat of the recent Lethbridge by-election.

He probably brought 50 per cent of the votes into the world in Lethbridge. Mrs. Gostick said at a Social Credit meeting here Saturday night. "No wonder the mothers voted for him."

She said the women of Lethbridge voted "resolute instead of reason" in casting their ballots.

Dr. Campbell defeated A. J. Burnap, Social Credit candidate.

REGINA FINDS FULL MEDICAL SERVICE AT LOWEST CHEAPEST

Regular Service For Unemployed Preferable To Emergency Treatment

By CARL REINKE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
REGINA, Dec. 13.—From the strictly financial standpoint, the city of Regina has found regular medical service for its unemployed preferable to treatment only in emergencies. Mayor A. C. Elliott told the council committee today.

It was cheaper to give preliminary treatment than wait until some serious condition developed, he said. The city had made an arrangement with the Medical Association which was working out satisfactorily.

Mayor Elliott said the city paid the Medical Association $2,500 a month. The doctors submitted their bills to the Association, which verified them and allowed them a percentage of their charges. Doctors received about 50 per cent of their normal charges.

"It seems like a very sound and sane arrangement," Chairman N. W. Rowell commented.

From inability of surrounding municipalities to supply hospital charges, Regina said it had been burdened with $20,000 of standing debt.

Abroad were four American embassy officials. They included George A. Hill, second secretary, and Ennis G. Galt, embassy clerk.

The British gumbot was expected to take survivors to Wuhu, 100 miles up the Yangtze from Nanking.

Nine Americans were known to be aboard the Panay, including four embassy staff officials.

It was understood that the Panay immediately hurried full steam down the river to give aid.

"The survivors, some wounded, are ashore at Hsueh, Anhwei province," said Rear-Admiral Yarell telephoned.

"Some Standard Oil ships are also sunk."

"His Majesty's gumbot Be is proceeding down the river to assist."

Lieut. Commander James J. Hughes, the Panay's commander, was a survivor. He suffered a broken leg. Executive Lieutenant A. F. Anders also was wounded.

The vessel had stood by Nanking, anchored in the Yangtze, to give aid. An American refugee when necessary during the Japanese siege.

Read Admiral Yarell cancelled his scheduled departure for Manila tomorrow because of gravity of the situation.

The American consulate said Americans believed aboard were: Norman Alley, Tex. Motorless; Roy Rogers, American born in China; James Marshall, Celtic's master; T. J. Broderick, Standard Oil representative.

A. J. Patterson, China Air motorless employer.

A London Times correspondent named MacDonald.

Also the four American embassy staff members.

Both Chinese and Japanese planes were spotted outside Nanking today. However, reports from the war front were that only six Chinese bombers were in the air.

WASHINGTON GETS REPORT JAP ATTACK

Slain Sailor Unidentified—Italian Subject One Of Injured

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The navy department received word last night that one sailor was killed and two officers wounded when the United States gumbot Panay was bombed by the Japanese in the Yangtze river.

The sailor was not identified. The wounded were Lieut. Comm. J. J. Hughes, commander of the Panay, and Lieut. A. F. Anders, executive officer.

Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson at Hankow notified the state department three Standard Oil boats also had been bombed.

Johnson later reported 13 of the survivors were wounded, some of them seriously. One of the injured was an Italian subject, he said.

The department said Second Secretary George Alkhanov, with 34 survivors, had been transferred to Hsueh.

Johnson reported Dr. H. R. Taylor at Ankang had telephoned him that Alkhanov, then at Hsueh, reported the sinking of the boats.

Johnson's message said: "His Majesty's ship Be is being sent to bring survivors to Wuhu."

"The U.S. ship Oahu, now at Kiating, is being ordered to proceed to Wuhu to bring survivors up the river."

The Standard Oil ships anchored nearby the Panay had refugees on board. These vessels were the Mopang, Meian and Meian.

State Secretary Hull said he hoped he would be able to assemble all the facts early this morning.

WASHINGTON GETS REPORT JAP ATTACK

Slain Sailor Unidentified—Italian Subject One Of Injured

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The navy department received word last night that one sailor was killed and two officers wounded when the United States gumbot Panay was bombed by the Japanese in the Yangtze river.

The sailor was not identified. The wounded were Lieut. Comm. J. J. Hughes, commander of the Panay, and Lieut. A. F. Anders, executive officer.

Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson at Hankow notified the state department three Standard Oil boats also had been bombed.

Johnson later reported 13 of the survivors were wounded, some of them seriously. One of the injured was an Italian subject, he said.

The department said Second Secretary George Alkhanov, with 34 survivors, had been transferred to Hsueh.

Johnson reported Dr. H. R. Taylor at Ankang had telephoned him that Alkhanov, then at Hsueh, reported the sinking of the boats.

Johnson's message said: "His Majesty's ship Be is being sent to bring survivors to Wuhu."

"The U.S. ship Oahu, now at Kiating, is being ordered to proceed to Wuhu to bring survivors up the river."

The Standard Oil ships anchored nearby the Panay had refugees on board. These vessels were the Mopang, Meian and Meian.

State Secretary Hull said he hoped he would be able to assemble all the facts early this morning.

EDMONTON MAY SEND PROTEST ON RELIEF CUT

Question Before City Council Monday—Calgary Takes Action

Possibility that Edmonton will make a protest direct to the federal government following recent action of the federal and several governments in reducing their direct relief grant to Edmonton from $35,000 to $25,000 a month is out of the question, Mayor A. Davidson, of Calgary, said today.

Mayor Davidson pointed out that the reduction in the grant would be discussed by city council at its regular meeting Monday night.

The reduction in the grant to the city this month by A. A. MacKinnon, provincial relief commissioner, would reduce the grant from $35,000 to $25,000 a month in the Dominion grant to Alberta had made a cut in the province's contribution to Edmonton's necessity.

You'll Want To Look Your Prettiest At Those Holiday Parties

Opulent New Gowns Will Reflect the Gaiety and Festivity of the Christmas Season

Metallic Fabrics Feature Newest of Party Frocks—Rich Silks Are Very Popular

NEW YORK.—Christmas is fast ringing... no frost has fallen lightly across the landscape above your dressing table... the final touch of perfume across your throat... the last smothering pat on the brand new party dress... you're off to a holiday party—and you have never looked prettier in your life.

GET IN MOOD

If you haven't bought a new evening gown yet, that's the kind of mental picture to conjure up before you start shopping for it. You never know your best in a gown you buy too hurriedly or when your disposition isn't exactly friendly toward the world. Get in a lovely mood before you step into the evening dress department, don't say, "I'll take it" unless it is a gown you love.

You can blossom forth in something very bouffant—a wonderful idea you see, but aren't all they should be this season. Also a nice idea if you are young and gay or if you have been wearing sheath-like creations for several seasons. A good idea to why it is permitted to ruin whole seasons of life. "Yes, women are greatly to blame for this. How eager would we be to enter into a different attitude toward the men who 'joke' us? If instead of making them, women said: 'All right, be a clown and an idiot. But don't think you are anything but a weakling in my eyes. I'm going to find a man with the courage to stay at home with me, and I'll be a woman, even, who are proud to send their sons to war, glad of a chance to be the mother of a hero.'"

Friends Honor Minister On Anniversary

Paying tribute to one of Edmonton's most vital personalities, close to 150 guests called at the Grouse home of Rev. Dr. H. B. Murphy on Saturday afternoon to offer their warmest congratulations on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of his ordination.

Smiling good-humoredly at their affectionate jailing, his wife, Mrs. Murphy, who has been his constant companion, and his children, who are all in the church circles in the city welcomed the guests with a warm and friendly greeting.

The Rev. Dr. Murphy was born in Scotland, and he has spent the greater part of his life in the ministry. He has been a member of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada since 1908.

His many friends and admirers gathered at the Grouse home to pay tribute to his many years of service to the church and to the community.

The Rev. Dr. Murphy's many years of service to the church and to the community have been marked by many achievements and by the respect and admiration of his fellow ministers and laymen.

the social round

UT DO THEY? Challenges to even more in the world today was flung out in one of the interesting and witty articles of Ruth Millie, noted columnist, when she said recently "woman is the greatest social success." It is indeed a challenge to the social success of the woman. The answer to the "Why?" of woman is to be found in the fact that she is the only one who is not a creature of the moment. She is a creature of the future.

Mayor Officiates At Ceremony While Hundreds Look On

Thousands of Citizens Crowd Stores Saturday Night as Decorative Lighting System Adds Gaiety to Festive Season

Pushing the switch which sent the current surging through a two-mile arcade of colored lights and brought a blizzard of holiday spirit along Jasper and 101 street, Mayor J. W. Fry officiated at a ceremony Saturday night which marked the installation of Edmonton's permanent decorative lighting system.

The ceremony was staged on the balcony of the Selkirk hotel, Jasper and 101 street, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and hundreds of citizens crowded the corner to hear the mayor's address and watch the official lights officially turned on for the first time.

CITY GETS CHECK

Feature of the proceedings was the handing over of a $2,000 cheque to Mayor Fry by a representative of Edmonton merchants, which contributed to the new decorations. Committee of businessmen in charge of arrangement consisted of John McNeill, Fred V. Hollands, J. H. Macdonald, J. K. Hill, Frank E. Dynes and James Walker.

Switching on of the lights also featured late shopping hours Saturday night, retail stores remaining open until 10 p.m. for the convenience of Christmas gift shoppers. Following the ceremony thousands of citizens thronged through stores to inspect special gift displays and take part in the pre-Christmas shopping rush.

MERCHANTS HELP

Mayor Fry declared the ceremony represented the most spectacular day he had been called upon to perform since being elected mayor last month. He explained the steps leading up to the installation of the permanent decorative lighting system, stating that the council had decided to make the installation with the aid of a generous contribution from city merchants.

On behalf of the city administration, he thanked business men for their co-operation and the enterprise they showed in contributing to a scheme which beautified the city and brought cheer to the citizens.

PROGRAM BROADCAST

Mayor Fry's address and the music which formed part of the program, was broadcast to the crowd of interested citizens by means of a loud-speaker, and the program could be heard for a considerable distance along Jasper and First street.

Checks school along the main street as Mayor Fry pushed the switch and the downtown section was transformed into a veritable blizzard of twinkling colored lights.

With Mayor Fry on the balcony were Aldermen J. H. Ogilvie and Douglas Groat, William Barnhouse, superintendent of the city department, and the committee of businessmen in charge of arrangements.

DINNER HELD

Following the ceremony a dinner was held at the Macdonald hotel at 8 p.m. Saturday, with John McNeill, chairman of the committee, as host. Guests were Mayor Fry, City Commissioner J. K. Hill, and John Hodgson, William Barnhouse, J. K. Hill, Fred V. Hollands, and Ed. McFarlane, Thomas N. Dwan and George B. Cooper of the Bulletin and the city department, respectively, also attended the dinner.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

The colored lights will be used during the Christmas and New Year holiday season, and will be on for the first time during the feature of late shopping hours, stores remaining open until 10 p.m. on Saturday, December 18, and Thursday, December 23.

The arcade will also be lighted during the summer fair week and on other special occasions.

Musical Sketch, "The Es-taminet," Is Accorded Prime Honors

Handing together in joyous song and dance and recalling vividly the memories of the lighter side of the war, members of the Canadian Corps Association sponsored a grand concert and entertainment at the Masonic Temple on Saturday night, which sent each and every member of the large audience into gales of laughter.

Heading the gala program was a musical sketch "The Fatamint" which copied prime honors.

Widely varied in its conception and always artistic in presentation, the entertainment as a whole left little to be desired.

The singing opened with community singing, in which Ed Sturtevant played a leading role and which was a medium by which all present showed their vocal power.

CONTRIBUTORS

Vivian Jones, soprano, Mrs. Wilton B. Tranter, contralto monologist and Elnyr Stutchbury, baritone all contributed items.

Able accompanist for Miss Jones and Mr. Stutchbury was Vernon Harford.

More community singing followed after which came the skit, "The Estaminet".

The scene was an estaminet "somewhere in France." The time was Christmas Eve, 1917.

Then there followed a riot of comedy such as none present could have dreamed of. The boys took place at that extremest and the situations that developed produced loud after round of laughter.

CANT MEMBERS

In the cast were the following really troops and residents of the near-vicinity: Inez, MacDonald, Mary, William, George, and the rock, Art Slend, Art Creighton, Harry V.
